Script Becomes The Scene

Use the following script from avengers infinity war to write an article about people fading into dust and cars going crazy. Use the lines as quotes and describe the people involved, along with their emotions.

Nick Fury: Still no word from Stark? Fury: Call control. Code Red!

Maria Hill: No, not yet. We're watching every satellite in both hemispheres, there's still nothing. [receives three beeps from her device] Hill: [alerting Fury] Nick...? [Fury turns around to see Hill disintegrating]

Fury: What is it? Fury: Hill?

Hill: Multiple bogeys over Wakanda. Fury: Same energy signatures as New York? [Fury then races back to their car and gets a pager out. He sends out an emergency alert, mere seconds before his hand turns into ashes]

Hill: Ten times bigger. Fury: Oh, no. Hel -

Fury: Call Klein. We'll meet him at - Hill: NICK! [Fury corrodes to dust. The pager falls to the ground; we see the device display a red-and-blue star insignia, indicating the symbol of Captain Marvel]

[Suddenly, a car spirals out of control into them. Hill goes over to check on the driver of the car, but sees no one is in there]

Fury: They okay?

Hill: There's no one here.

[Suddenly, a helicopter, with ash flying out, crashes into a building. The two are now witnessing civilians around them suddenly disintegrating]

Summarise a news A r t i c l e Tile. Plan. Write. Edit

Summarise and explain an article in your own words (Vist <https://www.dogonews.com>). It should be written like an essay (serious, concise and factual with quotes).

GoodLuck!
